Blaine County's Own Shooting Star Enterprises Performs at Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show

Hitchcock, OK, June 12, 2006 - OETA's June 12, 2006 edition of the Oklahoma News Report featured Blaine County's own Doug and Marna Jean Davis of Shooting Star Enterprises as they performed at Pawnee Bill's Wild West show as sharpshooters Annie Oakley and Frank Butler.

Historically, Annie Oakley performed for only a short time with Pawnee Bill's Wild West during its first season in 1888, after Annie and Buffalo Bill came to a parting of ways, which was due in part to a rivalry with the shooter Lillian Smith. To Annie Oakley's husband, businessman Frank Butler, Pawnee Bill's Wild West was the only thing that seemed to be comparable to the job they had just left. Though Pawnee Bill's wife, May Lillie, was also a sharpshooter for the show, Annie Oakley always received top billing during her brief stay with Pawnee Bill's show.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West show runs every Saturday during the month of June at the Pawnee Bill Historic site near Pawnee, Oklahoma, and Doug and Marna Jean will be performing each weekend until the last show on June 24. In addition, there will be blacksmithing demonstrations, rope making, gunfighter performances and more.
